

Vol 22 no.1 Summer/September 2018

Celebrating a Century of Service, Fellowship, Scholarship and Community
Since 1919

FROM YOUR PRESIDENTS

Celebrating a Century of Service, Fellowship, Scholarship and Community

Founded January 18, 1919, The Emory University Woman's Club is celebrating its 100 year anniversary! We are the oldest continuously meeting organization on Emory's campus.

The highlight of the year will be a gala dinner party held January 19, 2019, at the Druid Hills Country Club. There will be special displays of our history as well as a wonderful dinner.

As is fitting for our centennial, we have an incredible lineup of speakers this season. It includes James T. Laney, PhD, former President of Emory University and former Ambassador to South Korea; our own Cheryl Murphy, Emory '77 BSN, talking about the history of our club; Peter W. Roberts, PhD, Professor of Organization and Management, Goizueta Business School, about socially conscious enterprise at Goizueta; Corey Keyes, PhD, Winship Distinguished Research Professor on positive psychology and the life well-lived; Taina Figueroa, Fellowship recipient, founding president of Emory Latin@ Graduate Association; Tia N. Williams, Med, Program Coordinator, Center for Women, Emory, "Women at Emory Today."

We will have our Fall Welcome on Tuesday, September 25th, from 10:00 until noon. Since we will not have a September Membership Meeting, we will have Share the Care to benefit the Amani Center at our Fall Welcome. You can see more about this in this newsletter.

We are looking forward to sharing this very special year with all of you.

Have a great summer!

Dee Zesiger and Lex Gilbert

Share the Care for September

Amani Women's Center—in Clarkston, GA, is a safe haven for refugee women of all cultures who are seeking a space for spiritual, mental, and physical healing. In Swahili, "Amani" means 'peace'. Amani's holistic approach is to cater to the well-being of the community through a variety of hands-on programs sensitively tailored to specific needs. Women are instructed in health, hygiene, nutrition and meal planning, and English language. EUWC specifically supports the Sewing Academy whose mission is to teach women to sew to promote independence, self-sufficiency, and employment. Products are for sale in the Amani Store. Call 770-255-0539 for location and opening times

Needs: sewing machine needles that sew various weights of fabrics, all-purpose polyester thread in primary colors, high quality scissors. Older model sewing machines that have generously been donated are in need of professional cleaning and refurbishing that costs $85-$100. Make checks payable to Amani Women's Center

Amani Center News:

On May 14th Doris Mukangu, director of the Amani Women Center and one of our scholarship recipients , graduated from Rollins School of Public Health with a Master's degree. Any of the EUWC members who were especially supportive of Doris and her work at the Amani Center and who attended her graduation were invited to the home of Mary Emma McConaughey to a "Toast to Doris" following the graduation about a dozen friends were present to congratulate Doris on her years of hard work and perseverance. They enjoyed a special celebratory time with wine, cheese and hor d'oeuvres on a beautiful May afternoon.

A new EUWC Amani Interest Group will be formed this year. The purpose will be to support the Amani Center in more personal ways. The plan is to communicate by email in lieu of meetings. Anyone interested in being a member of this Interest Group please contact Mary Emma McConaughey who will head the group.
