From Your President

Happy New Year!

It is time once again to celebrate the founding of our Emory University Woman's Club. It is hard to believe that a year has gone by since our 100th Gala Celebration last January. We are preparing a more modest event this year. I hope you received your email invitation and plan to attend the cocktail reception honoring 101 years of service, scholarship and fellowship to Emory University. We will enjoy music from our 2019 Arts Scholarship recipient Elizabeth Sun and show photographs from the 100th Anniversary Dinner.

January will be a busy month for us beginning with our Board Meeting on Tuesday, the 14th. Please plan to attend and we will work on the year's remaining events and plans for the future.

Our originally planned speaker schedule has changed. Archana Venkataraman, our EUWC Graduate Fellowship Recipient is expecting a baby in March so will speak at our January Membership meeting on the 28th. Many thanks to Ginger Smith for graciously trading dates with Archana! We will hear from Ginger in February.

I give great thanks for all who attended the December Holiday Brunch. The food was wonderful and our EUWC once again demonstrated their generosity with a contribution to Fulton County CASA. We were surprised and honored to be presented with a formal framed document of Proclamation. Please see the photograph featured in this month's Newsletter. Our relationship with CASA is long standing and we always remember Judi Shur as the one who initiated the partnership!

We have an exciting second half of the season planned. Please continue to invite and welcome new members. We have so much to offer Emory and the community.

I look forward to 2020 as we continue to serve and enjoy the benefits of our circle.

Cheryl

Happy New Year!

We are a week away from celebrating the 101st Anniversary of our founding on January 18th, 1919.

Your committee has planned a lovely cocktail reception to mark this wonderful accomplishment. Our scholarship student of 2019, Elizabeth Sun, is joining us once again to play the piano and share her talent with us.

We will have a large screen TV showing photographs of our 100th anniversary gala of last year. There will be heavy hors d'oeuvres passed around and a table of delicious treats, sweet and savory. Everyone will receive two drink tickets to redeem at our bar on the sun porch.

Please let us know by Tuesday, January 14th if you plan to attend. Your checks need not reach Barb by that date but we do need to know how folks to expect for our caterer! We will gather upstairs at the Houston Mill House from 5 until 7 PM and the cost for this celebratory event is $50 per person.

Our treasurer Barb Froehlich is accepting checks payable to the EUWC and they may be mailed to her address:

1134 Vistavia Circle
Decatur, GA 30033

We are looking forward to hosting a crowd of revelers!
