From Our President

This past year was truly a banner year as we celebrated “A Century of Service, Fellowship, Scholarship and Community”. The women who met to form the Emory University Woman’s Club were on the cusp of so many seminal events in our nation’s history and in the development of the university. World War I ended, women had campaigned and won the vote and the 1920s were getting ready to roar! Emory College was putting down roots in Atlanta and on the path to the world class University it has become.

Where are we today? Self-driving cars are here, modern medicine has extended our life spans to almost double that of 1900, the modern family is evolving and we are bombarded with information at a speed of light pace. Yet, we still experience the longing for friendship, connection and service and the joys of fellowship. As we enter our 2nd century together The Emory University Woman’s Club stands ready to continue that mission. We might be considered one of the anchors in an ever-changing society that remains devoted to one another and in service to Emory and the community.

Your leadership is busy preparing for the coming year. Many thanks to those of you who have agreed to continue as committee chairwomen. In this summer issue you will find a schedule of meetings for the fall. We are planning a trip to the Oxford campus in March. We have most of our speakers lined up and plan to focus on what we do best—host monthly meetings, enjoy Tuesday Tastings and Scrumptious Saturdays, host the Fall Welcome and Holiday Brunch and continue to take great interest in our Graduate Fellowship, Rollins School of Public Health and Fine Arts scholars.

I encourage EVERYONE to reach out to friends and neighbors and colleagues with an invitation to the fall welcome and to join in the camaraderie we share.

Let us continue to serve and celebrate as we embark on

THE FIRST YEAR OF OUR SECOND
CENTURY
The Emory University Woman’s Club
1919-2019

Beginning the Second Century

As we come together at our Fall Welcome on September 24 for the beginning of the EUWC 2019-2020 program year, we begin the next 100 years of service, fellowship and fun. You will definitely want to be at Houston Mill House for this memorable gathering.

Your Membership Chairs encourage you to invite a friend, neighbor, member of your church or book club or garden club to join us. This event is the perfect opportunity for all to see how exceptional EUWC truly is.

If there is someone you would like to invite, please let us know and we will send them an invitation. See you in September.

Membership Chairs:
