

From Our President

We are off to a great start! Our Fall Welcome exceeded attendance expectations and our October membership meeting, featuring Emory Professor Noelle McAfee, attracted 50 members and guests. This month we will host Amy Dorrill, formerly of the Emory School of Nursing. She is an engaging and enthusiastic speaker and we will hear the history of the nursing school, a campus institution since 1905.

Following the October meeting, thirteen past presidents of the EUWC met for lunch and shared fascinating stories of their time with the club. The luncheon is a time-honored tradition and has enjoyed a comeback in recent years!

It was a pleasure to welcome Deborah Marlowe to the club to represent our newest Share the Care outreach recipient, the Glenn Memorial Church's Snack-in-a-Backpack program. Your generosity provided $320 and several bags of donated food items.

A donation was made to the Memorial Library Fund in memory of Jane Kibler, MaryKay Wilcox and Thelma Kingma. This is one of our long-standing traditions and thousands of dollars have been donated over the years in support of the University libraries, a cornerstone of our relationship with Emory.

Looking ahead we await our Holiday Brunch and plans are underway for the annual January Anniversary celebration at the Houston Mill House.

Bring a friend to the November meeting and introduce them to one of the finest organization of women in Atlanta!

In Thanksgiving for you all,
Cheryl
