

From Our President

Fall finally graced us with milder weather and clear crisp days and here we are anticipating the December Holiday Brunch! Thank you to those who signed up bring a dish to share and all are invited to bring a brunch treat to enjoy. We will gather on December 10th upstairs at the Houston Mill House for a festive start to the season. Please reach out and bring a friend to introduce to the club.

We enjoyed a rousing presentation from Amy Dorrill last month chronicling the history of the Nell Hodgson Woodruff School of Nursing. You may recall that school celebrated 100 years on the campus in 2005 and was the recipient of our benefit dinner that year!

We continue to attract new members and thanks to all who continue to support and spread the word about the prominence of our group and the many ways we support one another, the community and Emory.

All my best, Cheryl

Please Join us for our

Holiday Brunch

Tuesday, December 10
10 a.m. until noon
Houston Mill House

Whom Do You Suggest?

At the last membership meeting, many of you suggested guests to invite to our Holiday Brunch. At the time I trusted my memory to recall them later, but alas, we know that was false confidence on my part. The following are the ones I do recall: Nurse Associates, CASA leaders, invitees unable to attend the Fall Welcome, Share the Care recipients, and then I am not sure. Please send me your suggestions along with names and contact information should you have them. Please send them by December 1 so Nancy, Vicki and I can get out the invitations ASAP. Thanks, Dee.

Tuesday Tasting

There will be no Tuesday Tasting due to holidays

EUWC 2007 Graduate Fellowship Award Recipient

Mabel Magowe, PhD from the School of Nursing and 2007 EUWC award recipient was recently honored with the Madhu and Jagdish Sheth Distinguished International Alumni Award. Madhu is a longtime EUWC member and her husband a past speaker to our group! How wonderful that one of our Graduate Fellowship recipients and Nursing School PhD student has gone on to do great work in her home country of Botswana. The Sheths established the award in 2002 to recognize excellence in our international alumni students. The EUWC should be proud of our deep connections and success of our scholarship recipients.

EUWC Chare the Care 2019-2020

The generosity of our EUWC is always a pleasure to experience! We delivered $270 and 2 large bags full of books, puzzles and snack items to the CHOA Infusion Center. The children and parents spend long hours in the center and are grateful for snack food and activities for their children. Thank you all for your support!

December: CASA of Fulton County — is a 501(c)(3) organization that recruits and trains community members to become volunteer advocates for abused and neglected children in foster care. CASA volunteers undergo extensive training and maintain monthly contacts with each child/teen assigned to them in order to make recommendations to the Court in determining permanency of foster care or reunification with family.

Recipient of Share the Care featured on CBS This Morning

In early 2019 EUWC supported Songs for Kids. This 5013c has been in operation since 2007 and was founded by Emory graduate Josh Rifkin. The original purpose was to bring music to children and teens in the hospital. Music can be inspirational to all of us and especially so to those battling serous illnesses. Music has helped children and teens cope with months of hospitalizations. It has expanded to space near Centennial Park where children and teens come to find their voice expressing what they are going through and leading them to healing. The Center has recording full studio and is often visited by national recording artists who love being with the SFK clients. The EUWC donation was just enough to sponsor a recording session for one child.
