From Our President

FALL WELCOME A LOVELY SUCCESS

Our 2019-2020 season opened in style at the newly remodeled Houston Mill House. With fresh new carpet and paint the bright fall day was the perfect setting for our annual newcomer tradition. Over 70 people attended and we had several newcomers join the Emory University Woman's Club, what a great start!

The Membership committee outdid themselves staging the event. Thank you to Dee Zesiger, Nancy Smith and Vicki Bedwell for their organization, table decorations and coordination of delicious food provided by your EUWC board members. The success of the welcome is thanks to their planning over the summer and thoughtful attention to invitations. Many thanks to Chavien Shy and the Conference Center staff for their role in preparation and assistance in making this a spirited event.

The annual EUWC Yearbook made its debut and is available to all dues paying members. Thank you to Susan Neel and her assistant Joanie Edmondson for the task of editing, updating and printing our beloved yearbook. Dues are $30 and include a copy of the yearbook.

And, thanks to Mary Emma McConaughy for her interest in the Amani Center and coordination of the September Share the Care.

Look for more information in this newsletter about our upcoming Scrumptious Saturday and the October membership meeting on the 22nd, followed by the Past Presidents' Luncheon at the Houston Mill House.

Year 101 Off To A Rollicking Start

Our Fall Welcome brought together approximately 70 ladies to enjoy a fabulous collection of delicious foods and lots of catching up. Meeting our scholarship and fellowship winners was a delight as they are incredibly talented, capable, and compassionate women. A special highlight was that six guests became new EUWC members. Kathryn Graves from the Rollins School of Public Health, Tia Williams from the Center for Women, and Misty Haxton from Development and Alumni Relations joined us for lunch. Many thanks to the EUWC Board for the wonderful meal and to all who contributed to the success of the event.

WELCOME TO ALL!

The EUWC membership is richer by six new members. In the weeks to come please welcome them to EUWC Events. They are Denise Ritchie, Grace Sanders, Tip Boonperm-Weniger, Ginny Robinson, Pslakshmi Rao, and Carolyn Gilbert.

Are you missing a platter?

A plain white platter and a white bowl for dip were left at the Fall Welcome. They had been used for a vegetable plate. Dee has them. Let her know so she can return them.

Name Badges

If you are in need of a new name badge, please let Lex Gilbert know at justforlex@gmail.com

SHARE THE CARE

Opportunity!

We have an opening in our Share the Care committee. The summer work of deciding upon worthwhile groups and setting up a schedule is already completed, but we could use someone to take care of the details during the year. It is a great chance to represent our wonderful organization as well as to meet some of the best people in the city of Atlanta who are doing such great work. Please let Cheryl Murphy know if you would like to hear more about this or would like to be considered for the position.

October Snack in a Backpack—Glenn Memorial Church on the Emory campus provides “Snack in a Backpack” during the school year to over 300 children who receive free meals at school but are at risk of hunger on the weekends. They serve children at Hope Elementary, Mary Lin Elementary, Barack & Michelle Obama Academy, S.L. Lewis Elementary, and the Global Village Project. On Thursday evenings in the Ward Fellowship Hall volunteers gather to pack food, coordinate delivery, and manage inventory.

Hostesses

Our hostesses for October are Sharon Gunn and Barbara Froehlich

SCRUMPTIOUS SATURDAY ALMOST HERE

This Saturday, October 5, our first Scrumptious Saturday of the year will be hosted by Lex Gilbert at her home in Tucker from 11 to 1. Remember to bring a dish to share and please bring a friend to this popular gathering. If you did not RSVP by the 1st, but would like to attend, please let Lex know. There is still room.

Suitcase Project for CASA Fulton County

We have succeeded in finding another showroom willing to supply us suitcases for our CASA children. In fact, they like the idea so much, they wish to add to our gift themselves. The style of the purple suitcase below is available to us for $30 each. It is hard sided, larger than the ones we gave two years ago, and has a 3" zipper which allows the suitcase to expand. The showroom will order them for us and warehouse them until late November. There will be an assortment of four colors which will be confirmed at the time we place the order. We will not have a choice of colors. Jackie Walker will bring a sample of the suitcase to our first meeting in October. Should you think purchasing a suitcase(s) would be meaningful for you, please be prepared to pay Jackie by check.

Interest Groups

Friday Morning Book Club, contact Margaret Foust. The next meeting is October 25th. Discussion will be on Genghis Kahn and the Making of the Modern World.

Thursday Book Club, contact Joanie Edmondson. The next meeting is Thursday, October 3rd. Margaret Foust will lead a discussion of Born a Crime by Trevor Noah.

Contract Bridge meets the first and third Thursdays of the month at the Mason Mill Recreation Center, 340 McConnell Dr. from 10:00 a.m. until 2:30 p.m. Contact Missy Cody or Cathy Findley.
