

From Your President

Our plan is to use the Carney Endowment to fund these two initiatives.

Emory at Oxford Trip on March 22, 2022

Bus Boarding at 9:45 from the Houston Mill House

Returning to Campus by 2:30

Please correspond directly to me if you are interested in attending that March 22nd event. We would plan to leave from the Houston Mill House at 10:00 returning to campus at 2:30. The Oxford campus has ramps, and available access to all buildings.

We would plan to have box lunches for everyone and have a presentation by Dr. Joe Moon, the Dean for Students at the Oxford Campus. Personal mobility will be taken into consideration knowing the limits of our Club. Also, Emory policy is now masks optional inside all buildings so come prepared with a suitable mask.

Spring Luncheon on May 10, 2022 from 11:00 until 2:00

Also discussed was the Spring Luncheon. I have secured the date with the Druid Hills Golf Club. We will be in the Lullwater Room. Please respond directly to me if you are interested in the luncheon. Masks would be optional and totally acceptable if that is your wish.

Please also note information about the Achievement Award in this newsletter.

Achievement Award

Sharon Gunn has agreed to shepherd this project again this year. It is customary to have 2-3 nominations per nominee. Please respond directly to Sharon with your nomination. If the Spring Luncheon does not happen we will present the award at our April Meeting.

The EUWC Achievement Award is given at the Spring Luncheon annually. It is usually presented to a member who demonstrates dedication to service to her community whether the community is her country, her city, her neighborhood or the Emory University Woman's Club. Please consider nominating a woman who you know is especially committed to service. This award will be presented at the May Spring Luncheon.

Please send in your nomination before March 21, 2022 to Sharon Gunn and/or Rosalie Cooper and please include the reasons you are nominating this member.

Thank you for being part of this exciting award season.”
